INTRODUCTION

DISAPPEAR HERE
FILM FESTIVAL

Welcome back to Ballyliffin for year 4 of Disappear Here Film Festival, and what a uniquely challenging few months it has been. With many similar events deferring this year, we were determined to proceed if government guidelines allowed. Please be assured that we have taken every precaution required to ensure your comfort and safety.

Thank you to everyone who believed that we could make our hybrid festival happen this year, on and off-line. We have always believed in the value of culture and community and we simply had to adapt. Now all you have to do is sit back and enjoy the show.

Michael McLaughlin
Founder & Creative Director.

Bringing to our isles the greatest international talents in the world as well as nurturing home grown l superstars such as WWE's Jordan Devlin & Session Moth Martina, Joe Cabray has created something extremely unique.
